Peer Review of Community-Based Research

Tuesday, March 16, 2021 at 2pm ET *****

Do you conduct community-based research? The Center for Scientific Review (CSR) at NIH presents a webinar on the peer review of community-based research. Drs. Jacinta Bronte-Tinkew, Tasmeen Weik, and Lauren Fordyce will provide a general overview of how applications are assigned and reviewed at CSR; the study sections that focus on community-based research; and how to find the right study section for your application. The webinar will be on March 16 at 2pm ET (1pm CT, 12pm MT, 11am PT). Audience members can ask questions during the live webinar. The intended audience is applicants, particularly those interested in community engaged research. CSR appreciates you sharing the information widely with your investigator network.

NIH Repays Your Student Loans: An In-Depth Overview of the NIH Loan Repayment Programs Friday, March 19, 2021, 12:30pm ET

On March 19th, Dr. Ericka Boone, the Division of Loan Repayment Director, will present an in-depth overview of the NIH Loan Repayment Program. The NIH Loan Repayment Programs (LRPs) are a set of programs established by Congress designed to recruit and retain highly qualified health professionals into biomedical or biobehavioral research centers. The NIH LRPs pay up to $50,000 annually of qualified educational debt in return for a commitment to engage in NIH mission-relevant research. Applicants must hold an M.D., Ph.D., Psy.D., Pharm.D, D.O., D.D.S., D.M.D. D.P.M, D.C., N.D., O.D., D.V.M, or equivalent doctoral-level degree (except for the Contraception & Infertility Research LRP). The NIH LRPs will accept applications from September 1-November 15. Don't miss your opportunity to learn how you could receive up to $100,000 in educational debt relief! For more information, visit the NIH

Mentorship: Developing Reciprocal and Productive Relationships

Monday, March 29 at 3:00 pm ET

GSA is launching a series of virtual Career Conversations to exchange ideas about issues and strategies to build a successful career in gerontology. Through semi-structured interviews, panels, and discussions. Career Conversations will bring together students, early- and mid-career gerontologists, and experienced researchers and leaders in gerontology.

Join us for our first Career Conversation, "Mentorship: Developing Reciprocal and Productive Relationships," scheduled for Monday, March 29 at 3:00 pm ET. During this session GSA mentoring award recipients and experienced mentees will engage in conversation on how to develop mutually beneficial mentoring relationships. Time will be included for questions from participants. This session is intended for GSA members at all career levels.
