

Michigan Center for Urban African American Aging Research
And Program for Research on Black Americans
Virtual 2024 Summer Mentoring Workshop for Advanced Doctoral Students focusing on Latinx Research

May 29 - 31, 2024

Application Deadline: April 22, 2024

LEAD PROGRAM FACULTY: David Cordova, Robert Joseph Taylor and Amanda Woodward

Program held in conjunction with the Mentoring Workshop for Doctoral Students who are committed to conducting African American research.

WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES:

- ❖ Identify and mentor doctoral students of diverse backgrounds who are committed to conducting Latinx research.
- ❖ Provide participants with training on the publication process, interviewing for tenure track jobs, grant writing and how to overall negotiate the academy.

ELIGIBILITY:

- ❖ PhD candidates and advanced doctoral program graduate students

HOW TO APPLY: Please apply by providing electronic copies of the following materials:

- ❖ A letter concisely describing your research plans with details about your current level of preparation for a research career. Please describe how participation in this workshop would contribute to your research career (2-page limit).
- ❖ Current curriculum vitae.
- ❖ The name, phone number and email of a person who can comment on your research potential.
- ❖ One copy of prior published or unpublished work that provides evidence of your potential for rigorous social science research (e.g., dissertation abstract, chapter, article, conference paper).

Only applications in Arial 11-point font or larger will be accepted. All applications should be in a single PDF file and submitted using the Qualtrics online submission tool by using this link: MCUAAAR Latinx Summer Workshop Application

Questions should be submitted to Dr. Deborah Robinson, Faculty Administrative Coordinator, Michigan Center for Urban African American Aging Research, Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan, drdrobin@umich.edu .